CITY OF LONG BEACH BIKIN THE BEACH 2026

Long Beach, MS, May 14, 2026— The City of Long Beach is excited to welcome residents and visitors to Bikin' the Beach, taking place May 14–17, 2026, at the Harper McCaughan Town Green and throughout downtown Long Beach.

The multi-day event officially kicks off today and will feature vendors, entertainment, motorcycle stunt shows, live music, food, fellowship, and activities for attendees throughout the weekend. Visitors can expect increased activity in the downtown area as motorcycle enthusiasts from across the region gather in Long Beach for the annual event.

Vendor activities begin Thursday evening at the Town Green, with additional events and entertainment scheduled through Sunday, including a Sunday church service to conclude the weekend festivities.

The City of Long Beach appreciates the hard work of public safety personnel, public works crews, event organizers, volunteers, local businesses, and community partners helping make this event possible.

For a full schedule of events and additional information, please visit the official Bikin' the Beach event pages and social media channels.

The City of Long Beach looks forward to welcoming everyone to our community for a safe and enjoyable weekend.
