On August 25, 2026, the Long Beach Police Department arrested 50-year-old Jeffrey Willis and 58-year-old Marsha Fennell, both of Long Beach, and charged each with one count of Possession of a Controlled Substance (Methamphetamine).

The arrests resulted from an investigation during which a search warrant was obtained for a residence in the 300 block of Alyce Place. The Long Beach Police Department executed the search warrant with assistance from the Harrison County Narcotics Task Force.

During the search, officers located methamphetamine and several items of drug paraphernalia.

Willis and Fennell were transported to the Harrison County Adult Detention Center. Willis is being held on a $25,000 bond set by Justice Court Judge L. Ladner, while Fennell is being held on a $5,000 bond set by Justice Court Judge T. Lyons, pending further court proceedings.
